Two Major Events for Arkansas Due Next Week

The week-end after this one will offer two spectacular attractions for Arkansas tourists—however, only one is open to the public, the other being a preview restricted to the press, radio and television.

First is the Spring Handicraft Fair at War Eagle Friday through Sunday, April 28-30. It's a marvelous show. I've made two visits to the Autumn Fair, and the Spring event is certain to attract thousands of tourists.

I have photographed the War Eagle show twice in color and would like to go again, but there is a conflict in plans. The U.S. Department of Agriculture through Larry D. Henson, forest supervisor, has invited press, radio, and television to a special preview of the Blanchard Springs development Sunday, April 30—and I expect to head a Star camera delegation to that event.

If you plan to attend the War Eagle show you have the option of two routes. One is to take U.S. Hwy. 71 to Rogers, then turn east on State 12 to War Eagle. However, the route I prefer, and have taken in the past, is State 4 to Nashville, 27 to Mt. Ida and Danville, State 10 to Booneville, then State 23 through Ozark and Huntsville, turning west on State 12 (just before reaching Eureka Springs) to War Eagle. This is the more twisting and mountainous route but also the most scenic.

While you're going to War Eagle we'll be halfway across the state looking for Blanchard Springs.

The government has already spent 4 million dollars on this development and Blanchard Springs will be opened to the public next year—so perhaps you should get down instructions on how to get there, although late oil company and official state maps do show the site of Blanchard.

Your control point is Mountain View (not Mountain Home). From Mountain View you travel 15 miles north on State 9 and State 14, meet the Blanchard Springs sign, and turn right, and four miles later you reach a guide who will take you to the central office. Don't attempt it at this time, however. There is no provision for tourists as yet, and no one will be admitted except on presentation of the invitational letter from the government.

In return we expect to publish pictures of what may well become in future years Arkansas' greatest tourist drawing card.

One more word about highway routes—how to get to the Mountain View control point. Here again you have two options:

You may take State 7 out of Hot Springs, and State 9 to Morrilton, then State 96 to Clinton, then picking up U.S. 63 to Leslie, and State 66 to Mountain View.

That would be the tough route. A better one, and I expect to follow it, would be Interstate 30 to Little Rock, picking up U.S. 65 there to Leslie, then State 66 to Mountain View.

Meany Says Controls Failed, Wants Tax on Excess Profits

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor Leader George Meany demanded today President Nixon create a new bureaucracy to control prices.

The president of the AFL-CIO said it is nonsensical that food prices are not controlled, and declared only lower living costs will ease pressure for higher wages.

Controls on food prices should be "imposed as soon as possible," Meany said. He acknowledged farmers facing such controls might hold back their produce from the market and that national food rationing might be a possibility. Meany said labor could live with that if it meant controls were being imposed across the board "calling for equal sacrifice on all segments of our society."

In shouting, table-pounding disagreement with Sen. William

Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the congressional Joint Economic Committee, Meany denied labor's walkoff from the Pay Board torpedoed the anti-inflation system.

"When you walked off that board, you killed it," Proxmire told Meany. "You strangled your own baby."

Labor wasn't trying to sabotage the Pay Board, Meany said. "We refuse to be a party to the dissection of our own members. We were a scapegoat from the very beginning."

He called the board's last decision before the walkout an insult to its labor members but advised the Pay Board now "should be left alone."

"It's a government board now," Meany said. "It's doing its job. It's controlling wages. What we have to do now is control prices."

Meany said controls should be extended fairly to all parts of the country to end the inflation he said hurts the working man hardest of all.

"The President has said he will not create a new bureaucracy to control prices," Meany asserted and added: "Well, if he's not going to create a new bureaucracy, he's not going to control prices."

Using such words and phrases as "mess," "farce," "empty promises," "dismal record," "unjust," and "unbalanced," Meany said the system is weighted against the American working man with rising prices, rising profits and depressed wages.

Meany, who led the walkoff of organized labor from the Pay Board, accused ranking administration officials of distorting statistics to support an optimism he said was in no way justified

Thinks Inflation Surge About Over

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rate of inflation surged during the first three months of the year, but Treasury Secretary John B. Connally says the worst is over.

The Commerce Department reported Wednesday that Gross National Product—output of the nation's goods and services—increased by $30.3 billion from January through March, but more than half of the 11.8-percent gain in output was caused by inflation.

The rate of inflation measured by GNP reached an annual rate of 6.2 per cent during the first quarter, highest since the last three months of 1970.

"This was the rough quarter," Connally told the American Society of Newspaper Editors. "I think we're on the road to doing what we set out to do."

The administration has forecast that the rate of inflation will drop to the neighborhood of 2 to 3 per cent by the end of the year. The first-quarter increase in inflation was expected as the economy came out of the freeze, but the 6.2-per-cent figure was higher than many economists had forecast.

The GNP measured in current dollars increased by 11.8 per cent. But once inflation is counted, the growth was actually 5.3 per cent. The increase was smaller than the economic expansion at a 5.8-per-cent rate in the last three months of 1971.

Point of Decision

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is at the point of decision on Vietnam—one that could have a major impact not only on his efforts to reshape U.S. relations with Communist superpowers but also on the domestic political scene.

The President will disclose his decision within 10 days, breaking off public silence on the continuing North Vietnamese offensive and on the Hanoi-Haiphong bombing raids he ordered to counter the Communist thrust.

The announcement has been planned since January under Nixon's troop-withdrawal schedule. He will announce whether withdrawals will continue after May 1. But the message also will be a sign to leaders in Moscow and Peking—and to the flock of Democratic presidential hopefuls—of the shape of Nixon's election-year Vietnam policy.

White House aides insist the chief executive has not reached a withdrawal-rate decision. Nor, they say, has he set a date or written a message for disclosing his next step.

But Nixon-watchers sense an air of presidential decision-making.

Tuesday evening, Nixon went for a cruise aboard the presidential yacht Sequoia, plying the waters of the Potomac below Washington without any of his advisers along. Aides said later that he worked on a briefcase filled with papers.

Then Wednesday, the President cruised the Potomac again, this time with a key military aide just back from Vietnam.

Nixon had dispatched Brig. Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr., No. 2 man on the National Security Council staff, and four Asian experts to Vietnam a week ago on a fact-finding mission.

Casualties Are High

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam's offensive pushed Vietnamese casualties last week to their highest level since the 1968 Tet offensive, while American losses were the highest in six months.

The allied commands reported 12 Americans, 1,002 South Vietnamese and 7,117 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in action, plus 63 Americans and 2,656 South Vietnamese wounded. Another 10 Americans were missing, presumably in air crashes, while six Americans were reported dead from nonhostile causes.

This raised the total number of American, South Vietnamese and enemy troops reported killed since January 1961 past the million mark.

The enemy total was the highest since May 11, 1968, when 8,786 were claimed. That same week 562 Americans were killed, the highest total of the war, but in this offensive the only Americans in combat are airmen and advisers to South Vietnamese ground units.

The number of American combat dead last week was the same as the week before, but the other casualties raised the total to the largest number since last October.

The South Vietnamese killed total last week was the highest since the week of Feb. 4-10, 1968, when 1,152 dead and 3,349 wounded were reported, along with 13,118 of the enemy killed. They were the highest weekly casualties in the war.

The allied commands now have reported these total casualties for the war:

American—45,703 killed in action, 302,915 wounded in action, 10,132 dead from nonhostile causes.

South Vietnamese—139,456 killed in action, 352,529 wounded.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong—815,780 killed.

Heavy Fighting Erupts Anew in An Loc Area, 2 U.S. Ships Damaged

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Heavy fighting erupted anew today on two sides of An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon, after a 1,600-round enemy artillery bombardment of the war-torn provincial capital. Six North Vietnamese tanks were reported destroyed.

U.S. spokesmen disclosed meanwhile that ships of the U.S. 7th Fleet battled North Vietnamese MIG planes, torpedo boats and shore batteries this week in some of the heaviest sea action of the Indochina war.

The destroyer Higbee and the 7th Fleet flagship, the cruiser Oklahoma City, were damaged. Four Americans were wounded. A MIG jet that bombed the Higbee was shot down by a missile, the Navy said, and it was believed that three North Vietnamese torpedo boats were sunk and a fourth was damaged.

The allied commands also reported that the North Vietnamese offensive, now in its 22nd day, pushed Vietnamese casualties on both sides last week to their highest levels since the 1968 Tet offensive. The South Vietnamese command reported 1,002 of its troops and 7,117 enemy killed; the U.S. Command reported 12 American battle-field deaths for the second week in a row, the biggest total in six months.

The South Vietnamese command said that its paratroopers and rangers were locked in heavy fighting at midway half a mile north and half a mile east of An Loc.

Twenty U.S. B52s dropped 500 tons of explosives on three sides of the city, trying to break up the enemy concentrations besieging the city.

Field reports said North Vietnamese troops spearheaded by tanks renewed the attack from the north and from the south-east.

One battle 2½ miles south-east of the city around a paratrooper position known as Hill 169 was described as "close combat," and casualties were believed to be heavy on both sides.

The ground attacks were preceded by a 1,600-round artillery barrage from dawn until dusk Wednesday, and the enemy bombardment was renewed today.

The Saigon command claimed about 150 enemy killed in and around An Loc.

House Poised for Deadline Vote

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats today condemned both the renewed U.S. bombing of North Vietnam and Hanoi's invasion of the South and ordered action within 30 days on some deadline for U.S. withdrawal from the war.

The Democratic Caucus first adopted 135-66 a resolution condemning the U.S. Hanoi-Haiphong bombing as "a dangerous escalation of our role in the Indochina war" and ordering the deadline action by Democrats on the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Then the caucus added the one-sentence condemnation of North Vietnam's invasion of South Vietnam by an overwhelming 186-16 vote.

The U.S. bombing condemnation was proposed by Democratic Whip Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. of Massachusetts and the Hanoi invasion condemnation by Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla.

The final vote on the stand to condemn both the U.S. bombing and Hanoi invasion and order what would be the first House-initiated legislation on a war deadline was 144-58.

Before the caucus was a resolution calling for "promptly setting a date to terminate all military involvement in or over Indochina"—and directing the House Foreign Affairs Committee to report out a bill within 30 days for accomplishing that objective.

"The recent bombings of North Vietnam," it said, "represent a dangerous escalation of our role in the Indochina war and a direct contradiction of the administration's stated policy of winding down the war."

The White House, meanwhile, said Wednesday that President Nixon still will make his next promised troop-withdrawal announcement by May 1, but has not decided what he will say or how the announcement will be made.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers said "the North Vietnamese are the culprits," and the intensified fighting.

Student Council Holds Stepping Down Dinner

Climaxing the scholastic year 1971-72, the Hope High School Student Council held its annual banquet at the Presbyterian Church on April 18. This banquet marks the stepping down of this year's council and the official beginning for next year's council.

Receiving the Student Council Efficiency Awards for 1971-72 were Tommy Frazier and Sandra McFarland. These awards, this year presented by sponsor Tim Strawn, are given to the two seniors who best exemplify leadership and efficiency in their duties in student government.

Principal speakers for the banquet were Tommy Frazier, the 1971-72 Student Council President and Mike Huckabee, next year's president.

Other activities at the banquet were remembrances of the outgoing Senior Council Members read by Carol Frazier and Jill Herring, and challenging thoughts given to the members by sponsors Mrs. W. A. Williams, Mrs. Kathleen Jordan, and Tim Strawn.

State Shortages Add Up to Half Million Dollars

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Orvel Johnson, head of the Legislative Audit Division, carries a list in his coat pocket that has dollar amounts adding up to more than a half million.

That is the accumulation of shortages uncovered by Johnson's auditors under the Legislative Joint Auditing Committee since it and the Local Affairs and Audit Division were merged on Aug. 7, 1969.

"There got to be so many, I put a list together to keep track of them," Johnson said.

The Republicans expressed strong opposition in 1969 to the legislative decision to merge the two audit groups, even though a report by the committee for a two-party system had recommended in 1964 such an act.

"They implied that it was some kind of shady deal, to cover up cheating and thievery," said Sen. Virgil T. Fletcher of Benton, who is in his second year as chairman of the committee. "I think the record shows how wrong they were."

He said that to his knowledge no legislator ever tried to conceal any audit information affecting any area of the state.

"I know I wouldn't try to do that," he said. "I don't even know how one would go about it. How do you get a certified public accountant to hide something—after all, he's under a code of ethics."

Fletcher said, furthermore, that there will be additional revelations of shortages uncovered by the committee before the year is out.

Some of the discoveries of shortages led to indictments, but not always to convictions. The charges alleged embezzlement.

However, some other types of problems have been turned up by the merged audit operation.

"In some of these small towns, a lot of these people elected by the voters never have run a business and don't really know how to keep a set of books," Fletcher said. "So we're trying to teach them."

The committee's audit staff has held two seminars, one in Monticello and one in Jonesboro, and more are planned to acquaint county, municipal and school district officials with proper bookkeeping procedures.

The Legislative Audit staff is authorized 43 salaried positions and the local audits division is authorized 49. Their combined budgets for the fiscal year total more than $1.1 million.

The number of positions and the authorized budget for the merged agencies is larger than in premerger days. But some in-service training is planned to upgrade the ability of the staff, too, Johnson said.

The combined agencies have auditing responsibility for 75 counties, 375 school districts, 392 municipalities and 164 state agencies, which totals more than 1,000 audits.

Tornadoes Kill Five

DAVIS, Okla. (AP) — A tornado demolished an isolated farm home near Davis Wednesday evening, killing five persons—including two women who sought refuge there. Three other persons were injured, one critically.

The killer tornado, one of a bevy of twisters which roamed parts of Oklahoma through most of the night, zeroed in on the Curtis Baird residence about seven miles northwest of Davis.

was completely demolished near Ratliff and a church was blown off its foundation.

A neighbor of the Bairds, Mrs. Lawrence Richardson, said the tornado just dropped from the sky.

"It came down on that house and got it, then it went up in the air," she said.

Peggy Baird, bruised and bleeding, ran to Mrs. Robinson's home for help after the twister had passed.

There were at least a dozen sightings of twisters from near Stillwater and Enid in the north to the Ada and Duncan area in the southwest and to Le Flore County in eastern Oklahoma.

Hail up to baseball size and heavy rain accompanied the storms.

Another funnel—possibly the same one—touched town at Ratliff, injuring three more persons.

Victims of the tornado near Davis were Baird's son Eugene, 13; Sharon Kay Raines, 14; Larry Raines, 13; Pearl Taylor, 62, and Billie Casey, 34.

A witness said the Baird residence was the "contents and pieces of the (Baird) house were strewn over the countryside."

Baird was reported in critical condition at Ardmore hospital. In fair condition were two other Baird children—Peggy, 15, and Earnest, 16.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Casey stopped their car to get out of the storm but got only to the porch of the Baird home, between Davis and the Hinnepin community, before the twister dipped down.

Highway Patrolman Don Horn said, "They had just gotten there when the storm hit."

Eight houses between Hennepin and Davis were heavily damaged or destroyed. One Becker said that before the COPE convention questionnaires were sent to 320 union members in the state asking them to list their preference in the Senate race.

Painkillers Challenged

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has challenged three major drug makers to substantiate claims that Bufferin relieves pain twice as fast as aspirin, that more doctors recommend Anacin over other nonprescription headache remedies or that Bayer is superior to other brands of aspirin.

The three aspirin-base painkillers were among 10 cited Wednesday by the FTC in a proposed complaint charging the top three firms with misleading and unfair advertising.

Robert Pitofsky, director of the FTC's Bureau of Consumer Protection, said the advertisements create the "misimpression there are significant therapeutic differences between these products."

Named in the proposed complaint were American Home Products Corp., makers of Anacin and Arthritis Pain Formula; Bristol-Myers Co., manufacturers of Bufferin, Excedrin and Excedrin PM, and Sterling Drug Inc., makers of Bayer aspirin, Bayer Children's Aspirin, Cope, Vanquish and Midol.

The FTC "is not going to attempt to prove in this case that the claims are untrue" in regard to such statements that aspirin, for example, can help relieve pain, Pitofsky said.

The commission's proposed order requests the three firms halt the alleged misrepresentations in their advertising and that they spend 25 per cent of their advertising budgets for the next two years on corrective advertisements.

Frank K. Myers, president of Bristol Myers, said, "We remain confident in the quality and effectiveness of our products and in the truthfulness of our advertising."

A statement by Sterling said, "We feel fully confident that the advertising claims for Bayer aspirin and Sterling's other nonprescription pain relievers are accurate and truthful."

Total sales of nonprescription painkillers in the United States total about $330 million a year with Bristol-Myers, American Home Products and Sterling capturing approximately two-thirds of the market. The three firms spend about $80 million annually on advertising.

Aide to Testify

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — White House aide Peter M. Flanigan testifies today on his role in three antitrust cases against International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. and his knowledge of San Diego obtaining this year's Republican National Convention.

In the 20th—and what may be the last—day of public hearings in the controversy surrounding Acting Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst and ITT, Flanigan also was expected to tell the Senate Judiciary Committee about two meetings attended by ITT officials last year.

One meeting, attended by ITT President Harold S. Geneen in February 1971, pertained to the Nixon administration's revenue-sharing and executive-reorganization programs. The other, last April 29, concerned the failure of certain Wall Street firms. It was attended by ITT director Felix Rohatyn.

Flanigan agreed Wednesday to answer questions on those subjects, but not on any matters involving his role as a confidential adviser to President Nixon.

However, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said he would ask any questions he believes relevant to the investigation and leave it to Committee Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., to rule him out of order if there are objections to any of his queries.

The White House apparently agreed to permit Flanigan to testify in an effort to rescue Kleindienst's nomination to be attorney general. Several Democrats said they would try to block it should Flanigan not appear.

Kleindienst asked the Senate Judiciary Committee to reopen hearings on his nomination after syndicated columnist Jack Anderson published an alleged ITT memo linking antitrust settlements with the conglomerate's financial commitment to help San Diego obtain the GOP national convention.

The controversy over Flanigan's appearance has focused on his hiring of an independent consultant for the Justice Department to make a financial analysis of the consequences of ITT's divestiture of Hartford Life Insurance Co., one of the subsidiaries involved in the antitrust actions.

Low Pressure Center Brings Thundershowers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A low pressure center that spawned tornadoes and severe thundershowers in Oklahoma Wednesday night was expected to move slowly eastward today touching off thundershowers and thundershowers in Arkansas.

Early today, a near stationary front extended across the southern part of Missouri through Oklahoma and then into the Texas Panhandle.

Some showers already had broken out in western and northern Arkansas Wednesday night and early today.

The National Weather Service said showers and thundershowers with some locally heavy amounts of rain were forecast for today and tonight. The showers were expected to end Friday and cooler temperatures were expected.

High temperatures today were expected to range from the mid 70s to the mid 80s with lows tonight from the mid 40s northwest to the mid 60s southeast. Highs Friday should range from the mid 60s to the mid 70s.

With some rain in the northwest portion of the state Wednesday, highs were in the 70s while the rest of the state had 80 degree readings. Fayetteville and Harrison had highs of 77 and Texarkana and El Dorado reached 85.

Overnight lows included 61 at Fayetteville, 60 at Harrison, 65 at Jonesboro, 67 at Pine Bluff, 68 at Texarkana, 64 at El Dorado, 69 at Memphis, 65 at Little Rock and 63 at Fort Smith.

Precipitation reported during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today included .76 of an inch at Fayetteville, .23 at Harrison, a trace at Jonesboro and Little Rock and .50 at Fort Smith.

Letters

To The Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Address letters to: Editor The Star, P.O. Box 648, Hope, Ark. 71801. All letters must be signed, with address so you are identified to the newspaper staff, but if the character of the letter permits we will allow use of a pen-name in the publication, in which case you should add "Citizen," or some other word below your real name and address.

Pen-names are permitted when a letter deals only with issues. Direct attacks upon public officials, however, must bear the writer's name for publication.

Praises Hope, Citizens

Editor the Star: "Last week (April 13-15) the Student Council of Hope High hosted the 33rd Annual Convention of the Arkansas Association of Student Councils in which about 350 students and advisers were brought to Hope.

"At this time, we would like to very warmly thank all of the many merchants, citizens, school personnel, and most of all the HHS students, who made it possible for us to undertake such a large project.

"It would be impossible to list all of the wonderful people who had a part in hosting the convention, but we hope that the satisfaction of knowing that the AASC delegates consider the people of Hope the most hospitable in the state will substitute for a long list of names.

"The near 350 visitors to our city discovered last week what we have known all along—the people of Hope are GREAT!" Gratefully yours,

King's Ransom for a Dog

DEAR HELEN AND SUE:

I went to our animal shelter to look for a missing dog that belonged to a friend. He wasn't there, so I thought I'd take her home a pretty, friendly puppy. The lady in charge said, "That will be $7.00 plus $4.00 for distemper shots."

I then asked her how much it would cost if my friend found her own dog at the shelter and wanted him back. Only a few dollars less!

This dog got out of her back yard because the electric meter man left the gate open, which is the city's fault. Yet the city pound is charging her for another dog—or maybe her own, if they catch him!

I pointed this out and said I could go as high as $1.50 (all I had for the puppy, but the lady turned me down. So maybe that poor puppy was gassed, because a lot of people don't have $11.00 to spend for a pet.

Sure, the city has to raise money for food and shelter (and the dog-catcher's salary and the gas chamber), but if they'd charge less, maybe they could make more because more people would buy (or reclaim) pets.

Another thing I learned: if you want a cat from the shelter, it has to be "fixed" first and that costs up to $20 for a female. This, with shot for distemper makes it an awfully expensive animal. I just cried, seeing all those animals waiting to die.

But what can a teenager do about it?—SOFT-HEARTED AND SLIM-PURSED
DEAR SHASP:

Your pound has higher-than-average fees. And a teenager CAN do something about it, if she gets enough adults and young people interested. A good start is a letter-to-the-editor of your local newspaper. Once published, it will bring many supporters—and perhaps a campaign to divert more tax money toward animal care.—HELEN

P.S. But don't expect EVERYONE on your side. People who vote down school improvements in fear of higher taxes won't, for example, favor more tax money "going to the dogs."—H.

DEAR SOFT HEARTED:

I'm with you. If homeless animals could be "bought" cheap, and "fixed" for maybe half price, a lot of them might live—and it wouldn't cost the taxpayers enough to hurt. Also, it's kind of like asking ransom when the pound truck picks up an animal, then charges the owner for his return, especially when a city employee leaves the gate open!

Maybe you should mention "dognapping" in your letter-to-the-editor. After all, police don't hold lost kids for a payoff.—SUE NOTE FROM HELEN...But if a child constantly turns up "lost," police can charge parents with neglect. How about giving animal owners one free "warning," then fining them if their pets are picked up again?—H.

DEAR RAP:

You are so right: a child these days isn't crushed when he discovers he had "premature parents." So why do parents make such a big thing about their wedding date?

I came across my parents' (hidden) wedding license when I was 16. They were married when I was four months old. I wasn't shocked. In fact, I'd heard little hints from relatives. But I wish my folks had told me. It's kind of rough, having to tell THEM you know what they think is a "shameful" secret; and then trying to show them you don't think it is.

They were afraid that if I found out I might put myself down for being illegitimate—or follow in their footsteps. Don't they realize I'm ME, with my own standards—and I'm very proud of THEM?—NO BIG THING

(GOT A PROBLEM? Or a subject for discussion, two-generation style? Direct your questions to either Sue or Helen Bottel—or both, in care of this newspaper, if you want a combination mother-daughter answer.)

D.A.R. Chapter Meets

The John Cain Chapter of the D.A.R. met at the Town and Country April 12 for their regular luncheon meeting. Nosegays of white daisies marked places for 12 members and 5 guests, Mrs. Jud Martindale, Mrs. W.E. McFarland, Mrs. Arval May, Sandra McFarland and Marynell Branch. The speaker's table held an arrangement of white daisies in a rosepoint bowl, and brass candlesticks decorated with daisies were at each end of the table.

After the ritual led by the Regent, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, and the Chaplain, Mrs. C.B. Voss, the Pledge of Allegiance and the American Creed were repeated.

Sandra McFarland, Hope High School D.A.R. Good Citizen and State D.A.R. Good Citizen, was introduced. She thanked the group for the honor of representing the John Cain Chapter. Marynell Branch, who served as Mrs. Klipsch's Page for the Arkansas Society D.A.R. State Conference in Pine Bluff, told her impressions of the convention. Sandra and Marynell, then, played "Exodus" as a piano duet.

The President General's message, "A Gift to the Nation," was given by the Regent, Mrs. Klipsch. This is a proposed project which will furnish two rooms on the second floor of Independence Hall, which are the Governor's Council Chamber and the Assembly Committee Room.

Mrs. Klipsch gave a conservation program on "How Our Feathered Friends Help Us." She pointed out that our own destiny depends on theirs—they are our natural police for guarding crops and orchards. She had a display of birds' nests and explained where the nests were found and to whom they belonged.

Mrs. E.F. Formby, National Defense chairman, gave a report on America's youth—praising them for the many worthwhile things they do. She also urged everyone to vote.

Ex-Card Gets Sweet Revenge Over Birds

Revenge is sweet, but winning is the name of the game. The source for that statement is left-hander Steve Carlton, who fired a three-hitter at his former St. Louis teammates Wednesday night, pitching the Philadelphia Phillies to a 1-0 squeaker over Bob Gibson, the Cardinals' ace.

"The incentive is to win," Carlton said after facing his former teammates for the first time. "That's my incentive, not beating any particular team. Sure, it's nice to come back and beat the team that traded you and beat a pitcher like Gibson. But it's just as nice beating any team."

Although Carlton played down the revenge angle, fellow pitcher Joe Hoerner let everyone in on Carlton's true feelings. "That," he said, flashing a sly grin, "is the last team in the world Steve would like to shut out." If you say so, Joe.

Elsewhere in the National League, Pittsburgh rallied to beat the Chicago Cubs 5-2, San Diego edged San Francisco 4-3, Los Angeles trimmed Atlanta 4-0 and Houston downed Cincinnati 7-5. The New York Mets were rained out in Montreal.

Carlton, a 20-game winner for St. Louis last season, was traded to the Phillies late in February in exchange for 17-game winner Rick Wise. The southpaw had been holding out for more money and Gussie Busch, the Cards' owner, reportedly ordered General Manager Bing Devine to deal him away.

The Phillies got their only run off Gibson in the sixth inning on a triple by Willie Montanez and Deron Johnson's single. Despite the defeat, the 36-year-old St. Louis ace fanned five batters and climbed past Bob Feller and Warren Spahn into fourth place on the all-time strikeout list.

The Pirates beat the Cubs with four runs in the eighth inning, highlighted by Bob Robertson's two-run homer.

Pittsburgh added two more runs before the inning was over on singles by Manny Sanguillen, Al Oliver and Rennie Stennett, with Oliver scoring as Stennett was thrown out attempting to steal second.

John Jeter's two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth off Juan Marichal turned things around for San Diego. The Padres were losing 3-2 before reaching the San Francisco ace.

The game-winning shot followed and wiped out earlier heroics by the Giants' Ken Henderson. The teams were tied 2-2 until the eighth inning, when Henderson hit a tie-breaking single.

Don Sutton hurled Los Angeles past Atlanta with a two-hitter—Rico Carty's second-inning double and a bloop single in the third by Marty Perez. The Dodgers gave Sutton the only run he needed when Maury Wills opened the game with a triple—his first hit of the season after 18 fruitless at-bats—and Bill Buckner's infield out. Manny Mota singled two more across in the ninth.

L.A.'s Frank Robinson left the game with a slight groin pull but said he felt he could play tonight.

Another former St. Louis lefty—Jerry Reuss, who was traded last Saturday—picked up the victory as Houston turned back Cincinnati for the 15th time in their last 20 meetings. The Astros scored all their runs in the first three innings, most of the damage coming against ex-teammate Jack Billingham.

Cesar Cedeño had doubles in the first and third innings while Cincinnati's Tony Perez belted a solo home run in the sixth.

Pena Thinks He Will Return to Majors

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — Cuban butcher Orlando Pena headed north in 1965 to pitch baseball for the Yankee dollar. He made his debut with the Daytona Beach Islanders ... in the belly of the bush leagues.

Seventeen seasons later, he's back.

"My teammates are 19 and 20 years old," grinned the Miami Orioles aging veteran. "They call me Poppa. But they know Poppa can still pitch pretty good."

The 37-year-old Pena pitched in the big leagues for nine years at Kansas City, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Baltimore. When it was over, he returned to the Florida State League.

Pena draws a Class AAA salary since he actually signed a contract with Rochester of the International League, two notches up the Baltimore Orioles farm system ladder. It's in the $1,500-a-month neighborhood.

"I go to sleep every night believing I still have a chance to get back in the majors," he said. "My arm is still sound, my head is sound and I always listen for the phone to ring."

Pena hurled in a Baltimore uniform as late as last season, appearing in five games at mid-season when the Orioles staff needed help.

"For that, I got $3,400 in World Series money from Baltimore and a diamond ring for helping the Orioles win the American League championship. In 1972, everywhere I went I won."

Pena played for four teams ... all four won titles. He helped Miami bag a third straight FSL crown, did his five-game debut for Baltimore, appeared in 11 games for Rochester's winners of the Little World Series and then was on a championship club in the Venezuelan winter league.

Pena's No. 1 pitch is a forkball, thrown at varied speeds and angles. He shows the 17 years of smartness. Orlando had a 9-4 record with Miami in 1971 with an incredible 0.70 earned run average.

Pena's major league record was not-so-sparkling 46-68, but most was spent with second division teams and Orlando was often used as a relief pitcher.

He says the Florida State League—the bush league bookends to his career, has changed greatly since 1955.

"Players are much better, probably because of improved high school and college coaching. You don't fool them. They also communicate better with the manager and older players."

Pena recalled pitching batting practice for the Havana team in the International League in 1957. Rocky Nelson, a legendary minor league slugger, became angry when Orlando made him look silly with off-speed pitches.

"He threw the damn bat at me. That's the way veterans treated kids in those days. I hope I can pitch forever, whether I'm in the majors or in the bush leagues. I love baseball that much. But, I admit I like the Florida State League better the second time around."

Bullets Take Patterson

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Ouachita's Tommy Patterson, who was the top draft pick of the Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Association, has signed a two-year, no-cut contract with the Bullets.

Financial terms were not disclosed, but Ouachita Coach Bill Vining said Wednesday night that Patterson had received "a figure in the range of his consideration."

Vining said he talked to Patterson, a 6-foot-6 forward, Wednesday and that Patterson told him he had signed Saturday. Vining said Patterson was satisfied with "all aspects of the contract."

Patterson, a junior who averaged 24.4 points and 14.2 rebounds while leading Ouachita to a 26-5 record last season, has by signing forfeited his senior year of collegiate eligibility.

Speed Kills Memphis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alexandria killed Memphis with speed Wednesday night to take over leadership of the Texas League's Eastern Division.

Eulysse Wilson scored the winning run for Alexandria in the sixth inning when he scored all the way from second on a sacrifice fly in a 3-1 victory.

Wilson singled and stole second. He tagged on a long fly to centerfield and steamed around third for the winning run as the surprised Memphis players watched.

In other games, El Paso bounced San Antonio 11-4, Arkansas shaved Shreveport 7-5, and Midland opened at home with a sound 10-4 thrashing of Amarillo.

El Paso unleashed a 17 hit attack against San Antonio to keep a share of the lead in the T.L. Western Division. Rich Rhoden coasted to victory with a six-hitter. Dennis Yard was the victim of the heavy El Paso shelling.

Bill Huisman crashed a three-run homer and Rob Speering spanked a solo shot to give Midland its opener before a sparse crowd of just over 2,000 fans. Rain delayed the start of the game 28 minutes. Midland is tied with El Paso for the lead in the T.L. West.

The same teams play again tonight at Midland, San Antonio, Arkansas and Memphis.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers received another good pitching performance from Jackie Stripling and whipped the Shreveport Captains 7-5 in a Texas League game Wednesday night.
Stripling got his and the Travelers' second victory of the season.
Stripling had to have relief help in the ninth from Brian Bach, who got the last two outs as the Captains had the potential tying run at the plate.

Wicks No. 1 Rookie

LOS ANGELES (AP) — What Sidney Wicks wants, Sidney gets—almost.

A goal of Sidney Wicks' first professional season was to be the No. 1 rookie in the National Basketball Association.

"I'm gratified," the 6-foot-9 forward for the Portland Trail Blazers said Wednesday, "to hear I've been named Rookie of the Year" in the NBA for the 1971-72 season.

It removed some of the frustration from a losing season with the Trail Blazers. Wicks, who had helped UCLA win three national collegiate championships, said "I like winning."

Wicks scored 2,009 points and made the Western Conference All-Star team. What next?

"Probably, to become All-Pro. I figure you might as well set your sights high. I just want to do better than last year. I'd like to improve in each of my statistical categories."

And he stressed probably the most difficult of his goals: "Winning twice as many games as this year."

Wicks won the award in a landslide, receiving 77 of 116 votes in the annual poll of sports writers and broadcasters in the 17 NBA cities. Buffalo's Elmore Smith was second with 21.

Wicks, whose scoring average of 24.5 ranked No. 12 in the league, also averaged 11.5 rebounds and was second in the team in assists with 350.

Ouachita and State Split

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Southern State and Ouachita split an AIC doubleheader here Wednesday with the Muleriders winning the first game 9-6 and Ouachita the second 8-4.

Danny Burdine cracked two home runs for SSC in the first game to provide Darrell Smith with the victory. Buddy Adcock was the loser.

Mike Trasher went four-for-four in the second game to enable David Lynch to register his fourth straight victory of the season for Ouachita.

and I grabbed his legs when we went down because I'm not a fighter."

Martin and the Tigers weren't the only ones in action Wednesday night. Six other American League games were played as the Chicago White Sox beat the Texas Rangers 2-1; the New York Yankees trimmed the Milwaukee Brewers 3-2; the Cleveland Indians beat the Boston Red Sox 3-1; the Minnesota Twins crushed the California Angels 12-3 and the Oakland A's took a pair from the Kansas City Royals, 4-0 and 3-1.

Before the fireworks outside Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, the Orioles exploded for three runs in the eighth inning to defeat the Tigers. Boog Powell's opposite-field double to left knocked in the tie-breaking run and Paul Blair added two insurance runs with a single that chased Detroit ace Mickey Lolich.

An error by second baseman Lenny Randle in the ninth inning enabled Carlos May to score the winning run as Chicago beat Texas.

"It was sure good to win my first game with a new club," said Bahnsen, who was acquired during the winter from the New York Yankees. "And I especially was happy to get by the first few innings. I usually get hurt in the early going because it always takes me a Billy Martin has stopped fighting with his players. He's now fighting with the fans.

The quick-fisted Detroit Tiger manager, who made headlines three seasons ago by knocking out pitcher Dave Boswell, mixed it up with a man on the street Wednesday night.

The fight, which ended in "no decision," came after the Tigers had been decked by the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2.

"I wasn't mad about losing or mad about anything," explained Martin, whose playing and managing days have been studded with battles. "But this guy was blocking my way to the team bus. He was swearing and I told him to get away. I pushed him. He called me a name, dove at me and knocked me against the bus."

With several Detroit players and a group of newsmen watching, the antagonists thudded to the hard ground with Martin's fists swirling. The brawl lasted about a minute before members of the Detroit group pried the two apart.

The fan identified himself as Jack Sears, 25, and said he has been a red-hot Detroit rooter from Pontiac, Mich., who has been living in Baltimore for 15 years.

"All I said was, 'You guys better win tomorrow night,'" said Sears. "He hit me first Utah is at Indiana on Saturday night, while Virginia plays the New York Nets at Uniondale, N.Y., on Monday night in game three of their ABA Eastern Division series. The Squires lead 2-0.

Jo Jo White scored 29 points and John Havlicek had 26 but it was Cowens who made the difference for the Celtics.

Cowens got 16 rebounds and scored 23 points, including some timely baskets down the stretch when the Knicks had pulled into the lead.

"Cowens stood out," said Red Holzman, Knicks' coach. "He played very well, his best game

Victim Just Could Not Believe It

BALTIMORE (AP)—"I love 'em," baseball fan Jack Sears said, as the Detroit Tigers left Memorial Stadium in a bus. "Even if Martin has a bad attitude, I still love 'em."

Moments before, Sears had felt the fists of Detroit Manager Billy Martin, a fiery competitor who has been involved in numerous fights during his baseball career.

Exhibiting a bloody knuckle and tenderly feeling a bruised temple, Sears could hardly believe what had happened.

"All I said was, 'You guys better win tomorrow night,'" Sears said. "He hit me first, and I grabbed his legs when we went down because I'm not a fighter."

Martin, contacted later at a downtown hotel, disputed Sears' version of the confrontation soon after the Tigers had lost a 5-2 decision to the Baltimore Orioles.

"I wasn't mad about losing, or mad about anything," Martin said. "But this guy was blocking my way to the team bus."

"He was swearing and I told him to get away, and I pushed him. He called me a name, dove at me and knocked me against the bus."

With Martin's fists flailing, he and Sears tumbled to the ground. Several members of the Detroit traveling party pulled the two apart, and the bus departed soon thereafter.

Sears, interviewed on the first American League victory when he pitched Cleveland over Boston. The 33-year-old Perry, who played 10 years in the National League with San Francisco before moving to the Indians in a winter trade, checked the hard-hitting Red Sox on five hits, until relieved by Steve Mingeri with one out in the ninth.

Rookie Bobby Darwin drove in five runs with a homer, double and single as Minnesota bombed California. Darwin turned a close game into a rout when he drilled a three-run shot in the seventh inning.

Ken Holtzman, formerly of the Chicago Cubs, won his initial American League game with a five-hitter as Oakland downed Kansas City in the opener of their two-night doubleheader. Reggie Jackson gave the A's a sweep with a tie-breaking single in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Record Receipts at Oaklawn

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A record $3,903,492 was the total receipts to the state from the 50-day horse racing season at Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs this year.

The 1971 racing meet provided $3,186,313.

The racing season broke all attendance records and the average daily handle was more than $1 million. State officials said that only on 18 days did the handle not reach $1 million.

The 6 per cent parimutuel tax accounted for $3,618,069 of this year's total receipts. The odd-cents breakage accounted for $202,533.

The admission taxes total $38,399. The state received $18,365 in miscellaneous licenses obtained by owners, trainers and jockies. Fines paid to the state totaled $1,125. The operating fee for the meeting was $25,000.

China Team Draws Cheers

NEW YORK (AP) — The Chinese table tennis team, fresh from a crowd-pleasing match at the United Nations, was scheduled today to play a team fielded by the U.S. Table Tennis Association in Uniondale, N.Y.

The 13-member team from China drew cheers from several hundred spectators and won all of its matches Wednesday night in a spirited contest with members of the U.N. Table Tennis Club.

The playing table was placed inside the horseshoe-shaped conference table of the U.N. Trusteeship Council. The undersized arena forced players several times to the first row of seats to return shots.

Favorites Overpowering

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — America's top-rated women's tennis player, Billie Jean King and Vickie Berner of Canada overpowered Ceci Martinez of San Francisco and Mona Schallau of Iowa City, Iowa, 6-1, 6-4 in the $18,000 Virginia Slims Conquistadores Women's Professional Tennis tournament matches.

In the first round of the doubles matches Wednesday, Kerry Harris and Karen Krantzcke, both of Australia, defeated Joy and Jill Schwikert of Las Vegas, Nev., 6-4, 6-1.

The final doubles match on Wednesday saw Vicki Smouse of Arcadia, Calif. and Tucson's Marilyn Greenwood triumph over Cynthia Seiler of Australia and Janet Newberry of La Jolla, Calif., 6-3, 6-4.

In the singles matches, America's second-rated women's tennis player Rosemary Casals of San Francisco defeated Pam Teeguarden of Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-3 to move into the third round.

Third-seeded Francoise Durr of France, put herself in the third round by a 6-3, 6-0 victory over Mona Schallau.

Sonics Now Seek Coach

SEATTLE (AP) — The Seattle SuperSonics, who have reached into the American Basketball Association to bolster their player strength, now are interested in an ABA coach.

Bob Houbregs, Sonics general manager, said Wednesday the National Basketball Association is interested in Tom Nissalke, coach of the Dallas Chaparrals. But, he added, the Sonics "will not fight anyone for a coach under contract to another club."

Houbregs said Nissalke, 37, is one of "three or four" persons the Sonics are considering as a replacement for Lenny Wilkens, who gave up the coaching job in order to keep playing.

A published report in Dallas said Nissalke would resign from the Chaparrals to accept a similar position with the Sonics.

Earlier Wednesday, Nissalke, who was in Las Vegas for a coaching clinic, said in a telephone interview he thought Dallas would release him from a three-year contract if he received an offer from an NBA club.

"I asked Dallas for permission to talk with Seattle, and they gave it to me," he said. "Bob Houbregs and I had a short talk last weekend, and we may talk again in a day or two."

More Women Voters Than Men in County

DOLORES MCBRIDE

"There are 900 more eligible women voters in Hempstead County than eligible men voters," said Dolores McBride in a most informative program on "Civic Participation Through Voting" presented at the Hope B & PW Club dinner meeting Thursday, April 13, at the Diamond. The yearly theme, Era of Responsibility, was further emphasized by using E-R-A to stand for the Equal Rights Amendment, now seeking ratification by 38 of the states before it becomes a part of the Constitution.

Questions and answers concerning the rules and regulations for voting were given through research by Martha Stephenson and proved to be enlightening on many counts to those at the meeting.

In a setting of pink azaleas and tiny Japanese umbrellas, Marjorie Rogers presented vocalists Mary Jane Reyenga and Cindy Roberts and pianist Tim Gunter in three musical numbers, "A Quiet Place," "You

Confidence Builds Despite Vietnam War

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Confidence continues to build on Wall Street despite the Vietnam war, economic controls, the still unresolved problem of unconvertible dollars, the huge federal deficit, unemployment and rising interest rates.

What ordinarily would be considered bad news for the stock market now tends to be ignored. In other times any one of these factors would be searched out and declared ominous.

Not now. The Dow Jones industrial average is nearing 1,000 points, as it has from time to time during the past six years, and this always engenders a great deal of excitement that is quickly translated into commissions.

But more important than any other reason are those corporate profit reports. Many of them are simply dazzling, leading analysts to give forth with even more scintillating forecasts.

But between those expectations and the fulfillment stands a brand new institution in the American economy, the Price Commission, personified by Chairman C. Jackson Grayson.

Seldom is the commission's power over profits noted by stock analysts in assessing the future.

Among the analyses may be found the usual: the prospects for more vigorous consumer sales, the technical position of the market which is said to be breaking out of a plateau, the gathering momentum of the economy ...

And yet none of these has greater potential to change the market than the statement by Grayson that 10 per cent of the nation's biggest companies might have excessive profit margins.

Moreover, Grayson has pledged to reduce prices of those companies deemed to be in violation of Phase 2 standards and to assess penalties as well.

Rightly or wrongly, the assumption is likely to be made by many people that the profits result solely from higher prices and not from smart management, rising productivity and a more vigorous economic climate.

Nevertheless, this is one of those times in the market when news of any sort seems to be sufficient for optimism.

There is always the magic of 1,000 points on the Dow industrial average. While this should by any measure be one of the less significant factors in the market, it is seldom treated as such.

It is, in the words of The Street, a mythical barrier to be conquered. But before that imaginary challenge is approached there is the very real challenge of the Price Commission to be met.

One Way to Find Out Nothing Is Wrong

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Special Correspondent
CHON THANH, Vietnam

(AP) — "What's wrong with this girl?" asked Capt. Mike McDermott, holding up a Stars & Stripes that Raquel Welch in fulsome cleavage at the Academy Awards ceremony.

He was hard to hear over the blam-blam of howitzers firing at an enemy machine gun somewhere nearby in the jungle scrubs.

"Ain't nothing wrong with that girl," answered the major advising the ARVN—Army of the Republic of Vietnam—artillery. "Nothing at all."

"Good," said the captain, raising his voice to contend with a helicopter whirling down to take out some wounded. "Then there's nothing wrong with me. So far."

McDermott, from Highmore, S.D., squatted at a field telephone in the corrugated sewer pipe serving as the front line command post on Highway 13, Vietnam's Thunder Road.

A four-year man in the Nam, having extended twice on previous tours with the 101st Airborne, the captain took issue with a visitor who called Highway 13 "interesting."

"That's rear echelon talk," he corrected between telephone squawks telling why he couldn't get more air strikes and what had become of the water he ordered yesterday for his men. "It's not interesting. It's dangerous. Goddam dangerous."

He found no argument in this quarter. On the drive up from Saigon this reporter and two other AP men hit the floorboards when a B40 rocket tried to zero in on our hired car and an AK47 rifle pop-popped from only a few hundred yards away.

Only a few miles back, Route 13 had been a happy chaos of three-wheel taxicabs, oxcarts, droning motor bikes, overcrowded provincial buses, mobile noodle restaurants, and women in conical hats at roadside markets.

Now the wide road through the rubber plantations and stretches of scrub jungle was empty and menacing except for an occasional lumbering armored column. Asia's teeming tide of life recedes and vanishes in the path of advancing armies.

Just around the bend from where the rocketeer took aim at our blue Buick, the 21st ARVN Division from the Mekong Delta was strung out in a long line. Moving up to relieve An Loc, 60 miles from Saigon, the column was held up by the fighting at Fire Base No Name, where Capt. McDermott begged for water and air strikes. Under a blazing noon sun, the troops squatted in the shade of their armored vehicles, longing for a nice cool rice paddy to wade in.

Highway 13, Indochina's rubber road, runs from the outskirts of Saigon deep into Cambodia and is a living road map—or perhaps a death map—of the war that won't go away.

Here is grown the finest rubber in the world. Beginning at Lai Khe, halfway to the Cambodian border, the plantations are immense, some of them 75 miles square and employing 20,000 men.

National Chicken Cooking Contest Opens

By JOY STILLEY
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Take 11,000 chickens.

Skin, quarter, cut, slice, line, halve, dice, cube, pound or grind. Add stuffings, seasonings, flavorings, sauces, fruits, vegetables, nuts, soft drinks, hard drinks, gelatine, cheese, soup, milk, eggs, molasses, cereal or ice cream. Boil, broil, barbecue, bake, roast, simmer, saute, fry or grill.

There's a chicken recipe for every taste among the 11,000 submitted in the National Broiler Council's chicken cooking contest. The nation's chicken cooks, male and female, young and old, have included among the ingredients in their entries almost every edible item in a well-stocked grocery.

Nostalgic for the days of your youth, the Saturday movie matinee, the county fair? Circus chicken may be just your dish, with a popcorn-peanut coating flavored with lemonade.

Something a bit more sophisticated, perhaps? There's chicken a la mode—with ice cream. If you like to think pink, try chicken topped with strawberry ice cream mixed with rose wine.

In fact, eating the dinnertime cocktail is in vogue in chick-enmunching circles this year. Alcoholic beverages—from beer to champagne—figure prominently in the recipes as cooking liquid or in sauce.

Those who prefer to keep their chickens sober can try banana caramel sauce. And chickens cooked in tea, coffee, cola, sauerkraut juice, cranberry juice, orange juice, sour cream or honey are guaranteed not to give fowl fanciers a hangover. The stuffing could be rhabarb, chopped hot dogs or, for those who like the unusual, a combination of fish sticks, cream cheese and lemon gelatine.

Eight home economists screened the thousands of recipes in a process that will eventually lead to a cookoff among the finalists in 50 states and the District of Columbia. In addition to a few cases of queasiness from the stranger combinations panel members got some laughs.

Take one whole friar, wrote one contestant, possibly under the assumption that ingredients could be acquired from religious orders as well as grocery orders.

Every part of the chicken except the peep has its championships. Aside from such delicacies as breast of chicken fixed in hundreds of ways, there's gizzard goulash, heart kabobs, wings Chinese style, crown roast of drumsticks, recipes calling for feet, and neck skins used for sausage casings. Plus 14-carrot chicken soup.

After you have checked each section of your horoscope, add your 12 numbers and check below for forecast of your overall day

- 20-30 You can mix business with pleasure
- 31-39 Try socializing—it will pay dividends
- 40-50 Beware of being a loner

LETTER WRITING FACILITIES aren't what they might be, you gather from this GI's knitted brow as he writes atop a tank during a patrol southwest of Da Nang in South Vietnam. He's a 1st Cavalryman, and he's on a kind of "iron horse."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

No Anemia Link To Blood Pressure

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb: My friend and I have been arguing about anemia (low blood pressure). She says that if it is not treated right away you can die. I disagree. Can you please tell us the effect if you don't take care of yourself I have anemia.

Dear Reader: Anemia and low blood pressure are two different things. Anemia means inadequate number of red blood cells in the blood stream or insufficient iron in the red blood cells that are present. Low blood pressure means that the pressure of the blood in the arteries is on the low side. This is related to how much blood you have, how strongly the heart beats and how much resistance the arteries make to blood flow.

It is true that anemia can sometimes cause low blood pressure, but they are two different things. Low blood pressure by itself in a person who has no evidence of illness, such as heart disease, anemia or tuberculosis to name a few, is not serious.

What should be done about anemia depends on how severe it is. Girls oftentimes have mild anemias which are not necessarily life threatening, but they can contribute to fatigue. The only sure way is to know how severe the anemia is and for this you will have to rely on your doctor. I would say that it is highly unlikely that you are going to die real soon, and most forms of anemia can be treated if they are severe enough to require treatment.

The payments aren't very big, either.

Just a $300.00 cash down payment and $58.10 a month for 36 months.

(If you're not too good at math, that works out to a deferred payment price of $2091.60 which includes a finance charge at an Annual Percentage Rate of 10 percent.)

Along the way, you get a little financial help from the car.

It uses about 5 pints of oil instead of 5 quarts. It doesn't need antifreeze because the engine's air-cooled.

And although it does need gas, it doesn't need much of it (usually a gallon every 25 miles or so).

Of course, you might be the kind that likes to pay cash for everything.

In that case, the cash price is $2100.00

Booby Trap for Trespassers

"NO TRESPASSING" signs, posted on Harper's farm, failed to discourage teenagers in the neighborhood from stealing his apples. Finally he set a booby trap in the form of a spring gun, cocked and ready to fire.

Sure enough, that very night a trespassing youth touched off the gun and received a bullet in the leg.

In due course, the victim filed suit against Harper for damages. At the trial, the latter insisted he had a right to use force to protect his property against intruders who were bent on mischief.

But the court held that the method he had chosen was too drastic, merely for the prevention of petty theft. The judge said deadly weapons could not be used when there was no personal danger to either the property owner or his family.

Generally speaking, a property owner cannot use greater force by means of a booby trap than he could use if he were on the scene in person.

Defense Continues at Arkadelphia

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — The defense was to continue with its case here today in the trial of two college students charged with inciting to riot.

Charged are I. V. Chapman, 38, and Alvin H. Pearson, 22, students at Henderson State College. They are charged in connection with a demonstration outside the Clark County Jail March 16 that ended when the estimated 200 black demonstrators dispersed as stones allegedly were thrown at state troopers on duty outside the jail.

The group had gathered to protest the arrest of several black Arkadelphia High School students in connection with a disturbance earlier in the day at the school.

The state rested its case Wednesday morning. The defense called 10 persons to testify Wednesday before court was recessed until today.

Dr. Henry Akins, a Negro who is dean of men at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, testified he had known Pearson and his family for several years and the defendant had a "good reputation for truth."

Charles Burns of Pine Bluff, a black Henderson student, testified he accompanied Pearson to the jail, but that he asked Pearson to go with him and that attending the demonstration was not Pearson's idea. Burns denied that Pearson led chants by the crowd. He said he did not see Pearson and Chapman conversing outside the jail.

Dorothy Simpson, a black Henderson student, said neither Chapman nor Pearson led chants or took an active part in the demonstration.

Carol Hill, a black high school student, testified that Chapman removed his jacket during the demonstration and gave it to her "because I was cold." She said Chapman also removed his shirt and offered it to another student who said she was cold.

The prosecution contended Chapman removed his coat and shirt during the heat of the demonstration and led various chants while dressed in an undershirt.

In testimony Tuesday, Pros. Atty. W. H. Arnold of Arkadelphia testified that he saw Chapman lead a group in a chant of "Whup, Whup, Whup 'em upside the head."

Antiwar Gatherings Bring Out Police

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

Demonstrators, at the University of Maryland threw rocks, fireworks and firebombs and police fired tear gas in the most serious clash since the resumption of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam triggered a new wave of campus antiwar protests.

Nineteen persons were arrested in the violence Wednesday night over student attempts to close U.S. Route 1 bordering their sprawling College Park campus.

More than 250 state and county police and sheriff's deputies backed by an armored car, two Jeeps and a helicopter were brought in to reopen the stretch of highway which demonstrators closed four times.

About 400 to 600 persons hurled rocks and cherrybombs and fired skyrocketes at the lawmen while another 2,000 students looked on and cheered, police said. Three Molotov cocktails were thrown at police vehicles. Two policemen suffered minor injuries, neither from the fireworks.

At Columbia University in New York City, eight large windows in the School for International Affairs were broken by a dozen of 1,000 persons who marched through the campus late Wednesday night.

Elsewhere teach-ins, workshops, rallies and class boycotts were planned as students set votes on a coordinated antiwar strike for Friday.

The presidents of nine major Northeastern universities issued a statement deploring the renewed bombing and a win "at almost any cost" attitude in the war. They also rebuked coercive student strikes.

The Maryland clashes followed a campus rock concert at which some students distributed leaflets among the crowd of 2,500 urging a demonstration.

On the way to the highway, the demonstrators broke windows in the administration building and the ROTC armory and tried unsuccessfully to set the armory afire.

The 19 arrests brought to 33 the number seized in two days of clashes over the highway. Several police and students were injured in protests at the 36,000-student school Tuesday.

The window breaking at Columbia came during a loosely organized march that led to the newly constructed School for International Affairs building.

Board of Directors Meet

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Several members of the administration of former President Harry S. Truman will gather Saturday for the 15th annual meeting of the board of directors of the Harry S. Truman Library Institute of National and International Affairs.

Participants will include Earl Warren, former U.S. chief justice; former Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and former Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder.

There will be a panel discussion of research projects funded by the institute including studies of civil rights and foreign aid during the Truman years.

Doubts Busing Order Is Right Approach

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) more important than temporary Democratic congressional issues like busing," Arnold candidate Richard Arnold said Wednesday he legislation that would unduly restrict the independence of the on's proposed busing moratorium was a valid approach to the problem.

Arnold, one of four candidates for the 4th District Congress seat, told a group at Henderson State College that the from the war zone in Southeast proposal discriminates against the South.

"It appears to leave in effect busing orders that already are in effect in the South while preventing future orders of this type in other parts of the country," Arnold said.

The Texarkana attorney also questioned "imposing limits on the courts."

"To me, an independent court system in the long run is much

Jack Coleman of McGehee, another of the 4th District candidates, also spoke and told the students that he favored immediate withdrawal of U. S. troops from the war zone in Southeast Asia.

"The administration has a responsibility to the American people to set a date for the withdrawal of all American troops in the war zone and to adhere to such a date," Coleman said. "If the Republican administration is genuinely interested in peace, then a firm date for withdrawal should be set to coincide with the release of our prisoners of war."

British Rail Union Debates Court Edict

By RODNEY PINDER
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Rail union chiefs debated today whether to heed a court order for a two-week cooling off period in their four-day old slowdown of the nation's train system. It is the first major test of the Conservative government's industrial relations act adopted last year.

In an effort to avert a showdown, Vice Feather, head of the parent Trades Union Congress, made efforts to reopen negotiations between the three unions involved and British Rail, the government monopoly.

The 1,300-member Deptford branch of the National Union of Railwaymen demanded its leaders discuss a strike with the other two unions involved in the slowdown.

The Court of Industrial Relations ordered the railmen to suspend their slowdown for 14 days at the government's request Wednesday. If the unions refuse to comply, they can be held in contempt and fined up to $260,000 each. The rail unions, representing some 300,000 men, boycotted the court hearing in line with TUC policy adopted by Feather.

The appeal to the court was the first time the government made use of the antistrike legislation, and Feather said it was "very serious and regrettable."

"I think that everybody concerned with industrial relations in this country will regret this day," he declared.

British Rail has offered to pay the men 12 per cent more than they now earn but the unions want 16 per cent, which would bring their lowest paid members up to $52 a week. Since Monday the workers have been adhering strictly to their rulebook—much of it outdated—and refusing to work overtime. This has cut freight traffic as much as 50 per cent and sharply curtailed commuter service.

Taking note of the unions' repeated threats to ignore the procedures laid down by the new labor legislation, the Industrial Relations Court in its ruling said the real issue is not the current wage dispute but Britain's position as "one of the oldest and most politically mature of the parliamentary democracies."

"The hallmark of such a way of life is compliance with and respect of the rule of law," it continued.

"But the rule of law exacts its price. That price includes a willingness to comply with laws whether or not we agree with them, whilst reserving our fundamental right to campaign by every constitutional means for their repeal or amendment."

Debate Challenge Accepted

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Rep. David Pryor's challenge to set up a debate among the Democratic candidates for the U. S. Senate was accepted Wednesday by Ted Boswell of Bryant.

Pryor, Boswell and Foster Johnson of Little Rock are seeking to unseat Sen. John L. McClellan, who is seeking reelection.

Pryor had urged them to join him in getting one of the television stations to set up a program where they could debate the issues.

Boswell said he would agree to the debate provided all the candidates participate and that he be allowed to have a voice in the selection of topics to be discussed.

Boswell added that generally the candidate who thinks he is running behind challenges the others to a debate.

"Sometimes it is a desperate candidate who challenges to debate," Boswell said.

STYROFOAM vs. urethanes?

NO COMPARISON!

3/4" STYROFOAM SM costs up to 25% less than 1/2" of laminated urethanes.

That's just one of the reasons you should be using STYROFOAM® SM brand plastic foam insulation in your chicken houses. 3/4" of STYROFOAM SM is all you usually need to effectively and permanently insulate your poultry houses. (And just think of the insulating job 1" of STYROFOAM will do!) STYROFOAM SM is rigid board insulation, goes up easily and quickly. And it's available right now whenever you need it... because it's produced right here in Arkansas.

STYROFOAM SM has its own built-in vapor barrier, so laminated aluminum or kraft paper facings aren't necessary. STYROFOAM SM is self-extinguishing, and it's tough enough to take on high pressure hose clean-up.

STYROFOAM SM gives you a poultry house with improved environmental control of your chicks, reduced heating costs, lower mortality, higher production. 3/4" of STYROFOAM SM provides 35% more insulation value than 1/2" of laminated urethanes. And it does it all for up to 25% less.

So when you're thinking about insulation for your chicken houses, take a look at how STYROFOAM SM stacks up performance-wise and price-wise against any other insulation material. There's just no comparison.

McGovern Sees Victory in Massachusetts Vote

CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

predicting victory next Tuesday in Massachusetts and showing the same day in Pennsylvania, Sen. George McGovern says he'll seek an initial state breakthrough for presidential candidacy by filing an all-out bid in the May 2 Ohio Democratic primary.

The South Dakota senator, looking to demonstrate appeal to blue collar workers in the industrial states, made his announcement Wednesday at a news conference in Columbus. He also said he thinks the Vietnam war has replaced the economy as the top campaign issue, at least temporarily.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama said while campaigning in Fort Wayne, Ind., for that State's May 2 balloting that he'll back the Democratic nominee "unless they treat me bad at the convention." If they don't treat him right, he indicated he might sit out the campaign, rather than repeat his 1968 third party presidential candidacy.

Both McGovern, who spoke earlier Wednesday in Pittsburgh and Erie, Pa., and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, barn-

Editors Told They Risk Prosecution

HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A top Justice Department official has told newspaper editors they run the risk of prosecution by publishing secret or stolen government information. Columnist Dick Anderson replied that editors should not be intimidated by such statements.

The opposite views were expressed during a panel discussion Wednesday at the annual meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, an organization embracing 700 medium- and large-size dailies.

At a luncheon today the editors were to hear three Democratic candidates for president, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, campaigning in Pennsylvania, canceled his appearance.

Kevin Maroney, a deputy attorney general in the Justice Department's internal-security division, told a panel on press rights and responsibility that editors should check whether a document has been properly classified before deciding whether to publish it.

An alternative, he said, is for newspapers to print whatever information comes into their possession—thus assigning editors the question of security.

"One must ask," Maroney said, "on what basis do they arrogate to themselves the right to make such a serious determination. For although the members of the press are particularly well informed, they do not and cannot have access to all the facts... whether a particular document or piece of information, which has been classified, should be published."

Anderson, whose recent publication of papers attributed to International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. and of secret White House discussions of relations with India and Pakistan focused attention on the issue, said the government practices

Robbery Nets $200

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Police were still searching today for a man who held up the U. S. Post Office branch in the Donaghy Building here Wednesday afternoon and escaped with an undetermined amount of money.

One source said it was believed about $200 was taken.

The gunman was described as being a young black male about five feet tall and weighing 120 pounds.

Postal Inspector E. H. Edwards said the man entered the branch about 2 p.m., pulled a pistol and demanded money. There was one female clerk in the office at the time.

No shot was fired and no one was injured.

Candidate Claims He Has Been Threatened

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mack Harbour of Paragould, a Democratic candidate for governor, said Wednesday he had received threats because of his charges concerning the election of Charles Ward of Conway as Arkansas' Democratic National committeeman.

Ward, 32, was elected to the post at a meeting of the Democratic State Committee Monday, where Harbour charged that Ward was hand-picked by Gov. Dale Bumpers as a payoff on a 1970 commitment and to assist Bumpers in winning reelection this year.

Ward denied the charge.

Harbour said that prior to the meeting, he had been stopped outside the meeting room by a committee member and warned,

Psychic No Scare to Slam

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The late Ambrose Casner of New York won the 1944 open pairs and was second in six other national events in a long bridge career.

His favorite hand was one that got his team into the finals of the 1948 Vanderbilt Cup.

East's one no-trump overcall was one of those psychic calls that work on occasion. This time it boomeranged. Since Ambry worked his way to seven spades, Ambry might have bid seven anyway, but at the other table South stopped at six when East kept quiet.

Ambry won the diamond lead with dummy's ace and played three rounds of trumps. Needless to say, he had some anxious moments until the jack of trumps appeared.

Then he led a heart to dummy's ace and ruffed a diamond. West showed out. Now Ambry cashed dummy's king of hearts and ruffed a third heart. East showed out of this suit and Andy claimed the contract on a squeeze.

All he had to do was to run out the rest of his trumps. He had a perfect count of both opposing hands and West could not guard both clubs and hearts. Actually, he developed a double-squeeze situation. Only West could stop hearts. Only East could stop diamonds. After the last trump lead, neither opponent could hang onto three clubs.

San Diego Problems for GOP

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republicans say their plan to hold the 1972 GOP National Convention in San Diego is running into more money problems than they anticipated and they may have to switch the meeting site to Miami Beach.

R.L. Herman, vice chairman of the Committee on Arrangements for the party, said: "Our architects and contractors inform us that all of the modifications of the (San Diego Sports) Arena cannot be completed in time unless work can begin sooner than the arena owner presently will permit."

But Peter Graham, owner of the arena, told the San Diego Union: "There's no way, in my mind, that the convention is going to leave San Diego. . . Tomorrow or the next day we'll work it out."

"There's politics in this thing," Graham added. "I think they are digging at somebody. I don't understand why they are making me the bugaboo."

A source in Miami Beach agreed there was more to the problem than the arena and a reported shortage of hotel reservations in San Diego.

"They knew those things before they selected California," the source said. "What they couldn't know about then was ITT and the bombing of Haiphong."

He said the controversy over International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.'s pledge to aid the convention if it were held in San Diego has put a stigma on the Southern California town. And President Nixon's decision to renew the bombing of North Vietnam, the source explained, would result in mass demonstrations that could be contained better in Miami Beach, which is linked to the mainland by a series of causeways and draw bridges.

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall, meanwhile, said the Republicans had contacted him to discuss his city as a possible convention site, and "Miami Beach is ready."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — You could hardly do better in these troubled days for the beleaguered television networks than CBS's Wednesday night special, "It Takes a Lot of Love."

It was an hour dedicated to man's love for animals and vice versa. There was a boy and his dog, a girl and her horse, an old lady and her cat, a woman with a 60-pound beaver who likes to sit in her lap — all very gentle and sentimental. Sponsored by a pet food company, the program was the sort to warm the cockles of the nation's animal lovers, who make up an enormous segment of a population which supports — according to the program — 24,184 veterinarians and 71 million cats and dogs.

It was a curious mixture of cliché and interesting feature material not too skillfully blended. It opened with irresistible shots of a puppy playing with a ball, worrying an old shoe and learning about newspapers. Then it moved to the more heart-tugging problem of young people trying without much luck to find homes for assorted kittens.

An interesting portion showed the work of a Montgomery County, Va., dog warden — not dog catcher, he insists — who spends most of his time trying to reunite lost pets with their owners and to find homes for strays. His great triumph was to retrain a savage police dog without a home to a happy life as watchdog for a lumber yard.

The program moved on to a young man living in the Snake River country of the West with a "friendly eagle" for a pet; a California business couple with a bright chimp named Moe which has acceptable table manners; a red setter named Laramie who is an unofficial member of the staff of a Missouri mental hospital and can reach the hearts of children with greater ease than psychiatrists.

A down-to-earth segment showed the ranch which a Utah politician has turned into an animal preserve. He finds, he said, that after dealing with people all day, animals are relaxing and undemanding. He has discovered, incidentally, that buffalo are the most affectionate of his wild pets.

Accuses FBI of Giving False Information

By JANET STAIHAR
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher has accused the FBI of giving false information to Life magazine with the aim of ruining his political career.

He said J. Edgar Hoover plotted against him because he refused to help the FBI director in a feud with then-Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The 51-year-old New Jersey Democratic congressman was indicted last week by a federal grand jury. He is charged with income-tax evasion, perjury and conspiracy to help two convicted New Jersey politicians evade their taxes.

In an emotional speech to the House Wednesday, Gallagher said the FBI tried to "blackmail and intimidate me" into taking sides with Hoover. And he accused Cartha "Deke" DeLoach, a former top aide to Hoover, of spreading a "terrible, gruesome lie" about Gallagher's wife.

DeLoach resigned in July 1970 to become an executive with PepsiCo Inc.

Gallagher said FBI harassment began in June 1966, when he refused to get information from the Justice Department that DeLoach wanted made public.

Gallagher said he was told to request the documents, which would have embarrassed Sen. Robert Kennedy at a time when Kennedy had raised the ire of Hoover, "if I was interested in my own future . . ."

Gallagher said Roy Cohn, a lawyer friend who was well-connected to the FBI, relayed that word on behalf of DeLoach. Cohn was counsel to the Senate Investigations Committee when the panel was headed by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R-Wis.

Gallagher said the federal indictment and the "terrible smears" published about him in Life magazine were aimed at discrediting him when he has to run for re-election in his redistricted area.

The major part in a 1967 Life article that most people remember, Gallagher said, "relates to the alleged removal of the dead body of Barney O'Brien from my house by Harold 'Kay' Konigsberg. Life came very close to calling me a murderer. Though that innuendo was there, it was hedged later by saying that O'Brien had died of natural causes . . ."

Shortly before the Life article, Gallagher said, DeLoach told Cohn to warn Gallagher to resign from Congress because "he's not going to last more than a week after the story hits."

The head of the major Roman Catholic seminary in this area has proposed that the school accept students other than candidates for the priesthood, including women.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William N. Schuit, rector of the St. Francis School of Pastoral Ministry, asked for opinions on the proposal from priests, students, bishops who have students at the school and heads of religious orders. He said the plan has the approval of Milwaukee Archbishop William Cousins.

"The mail brought me 13 letters from priests this morning — all favorable," Msgr. Schuit said Wednesday.

If the plan is approved, it would begin in the fall, he said.

San Diego Problems for GOP

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republicans say their to hold the 1972 GOP National Convention in San Diego running into more money more problems than they anticipated and they may to switch the meeting site to Miami Beach.

Robert Dole of Kansas, chairman of the Republican National Committee, said in Orleans Wednesday a decision will have to be made on whether to try to overcome the difficulties or change the site for the Aug. 21 convention. A party spokesman said a decision may be reached Friday.

John N. Mitchell, President Nixon's campaign manager,

Accuses FBI of Giving False Information

By JANET STAIHAR
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Melvin E. Gallagher has accused the FBI of giving false information to Life magazine with the aim of ruining his political career.

He said J. Edgar Hoover plotted against him because he refused to help the FBI director in a feud with then-Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The 51-year-old New Jersey Democratic congressman was indicted last week by a federal grand jury. He is charged with income-tax evasion, perjury and conspiracy to help two convicted New Jersey politicians evade their taxes.

In an emotional speech to the House Wednesday, Gallagher said the FBI tried to "blackmail and intimidate me" into siding with Hoover. And he accused Cartha "Deke" DeLoach, a former top aide to Hoover, of spreading a "terrible, gruesome lie" about Gallagher's wife.

DeLoach resigned in July 1970 to become an executive with PepsiCo Inc.

Gallagher said FBI harassment began in June 1966, when he refused to get information from the Justice Department that DeLoach wanted made public.

Gallagher said he was told to request the documents, which could have embarrassed Sen. Robert Kennedy at a time when Kennedy had raised the ire of Hoover, "if I was interested in my own future."

Gallagher said Roy Cohn, a lawyer friend who was well-connected to the FBI, relayed that word on behalf of DeLoach. Cohn was counsel to the Senate Investigations Committee when the panel was headed by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R-Wis.

Gallagher said the federal indictment and the "terrible smears" published about him in Life magazine were aimed at discrediting him when he has to run for re-election in his redistricted area.

Former Pastor Guest Speaker

Dr. Fred R. Harrison of Malvern, former pastor of the local Methodist Church, will be the guest speaker at the First Presbyterian Church in Hope on Sunday, April 23, at the 11:00 o'clock hour.

Dr. Harrison is a graduate of Hendrix College in Conway, and of the Perkins School of Theology at SMU in Dallas. He was pastor of the Methodist Church in Hope from 1934 through 1938. Other pastorates held were at Texarkana, Hot Springs, Little Rock, and Malvern. He has also served as district superintendent in the Arkadelphia, Camden, and Pine Bluff districts.

Dr. Harrison was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Hendrix College in 1951. He has represented his denomination as a delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences of the United Methodist Church.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Harrison at the Presbyterian Church in Hope on next Sunday morning.

School to Accept Women

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The head of the major Roman Catholic seminary in this area has proposed that the school accept students other than candidates for the priesthood, including women.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William N. Schuit, rector of the St. Francis School of Pastoral Ministry, asked for opinions on the proposal from priests, students, bishops who have students at the school and heads of religious orders. He said the plan has the approval of Milwaukee Archbishop William Cousins.

"The mail brought me 13 letters from priests this morning—all favorable," Msgr. Schuit said Wednesday.

If the plan is approved, it would begin in the fall, he said.
